After 25 years of success as a start up in Silicon Valley, IMC proudly announces its first public offering of an IPO (Insight Practice Opportunity). Shares, laughs, and cake will be offered to raise capital for the renovation of our new Insight Retreat Center (IRC). Shares are expected to double in merit with every new retreat at our new IRC. Wes Nisker, CCO (Chief Comedy Officer), will prevent hostile takeovers and any other ways the evening might be taken too seriously. Kevin Griffin, our CMO (Chief Music Officer), a noteworthy expert in timing strategies, will be the musical underwriter.

Register and join us for a fun-filled evening by becoming a shareholder in the vision of IRC. Shares are expected to be priceless.
